ANTON HELL'S COW MAKES HIM A CALL

Anton Hell, cabinet maker of 397 Fairfield avenue, is the proud possessor of a fine Jersey cow which is more of a pet than a source of income. Gretchen is not only a finely bred animal but is naturally intelligent. She assumes many privileges not thought of by ordinary cows. Gretchen is stabled at a barn a block away from Hell's shop and her affection for her master is so great that she improves every opportunity to call on him while he is at work.

Yesterday Gretchen got out of her stable and trotted complacently down the street to make a call on the boss. The shop is opposite the police station and Milk Inspector Krueger was in the rooms of the Board of Health in the Charlities building. He was informed that the cow was the first of a delegation of several thousands who had set out to protest against the libels which the Board of Health have been circulating about the poor quality of the milk in this vicinity.

A dozen boys attempted to stop the cow but she went straight to Hell's shop and made her presence known by knocking on the door with her horns. The boss came out and petted Gretchen on the forehead. She followed him back to the stable and was locked in.

At the meeting of Dewey Camp, M. W. A., held Saturday evening two applications were received and four candidates were initiated. A social session followed the meeting.

Dr. George L. Porter will deliver his lecture on the assassination of President Lincoln, "The Tragedy of the Nation," before the Men's League of the People's Presbyterian church this evening. All other business which was to have taken place at the regular meeting at Lincoln hall this evening will be deferred.

HEED THE WARRING

Many Bridgeport People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brick-dust" sediment and painful in passage. Sluggish kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired, languid feelings and frequently rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only; they cure sick kidneys, and rid the blood of uric poison. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy.

Bridgeport people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Harriet Denness, 32 Harrison St., Bridgeport, Conn., says: "I know of no remedy as reliable as Doan's Kidney Pills. They have been used in my household for many years and we have the utmost confidence in their ability to cure kidney trouble. Whenever any members of the family have backache or any other symptoms of disordered kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills are resorted to at once and never fail to cure the attack. I have also tested this remedy myself and was not disappointed with the results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THE EYE TO BLAME FOR HEADACHES

The cause of habitual headaches is eyestrain. Eyestrain is due to imperfectly shaped eyes. The only possible way of correcting imperfect eyes is carefully-fitted glasses. Glasses are ground to make the eye shorter or longer in focus. The most frequent cause of headaches is not where the eyes are so misshapen as to cause clear vision, but to the small irregular degrees of misshapeness. The small errors cause a constant strain on the muscles of the eyes to maintain a perfect focus, rousing the whole nervous system and bringing on headache. Have your eyes examined by the "Dynamometer Skiascope Method" of Specialist Woolsey. If you suffer from headaches this method relieves you of the drudgery and does away with all chance of guess work as in the old and out-of-date ways of sight testing. You are cordially invited to have your eyes examined without charge or obligation.

Shooting Match—Bancroft's Oration—
Current Events—Town Officers—New Books—John H. Sherwood.

There was a good deal of clay pigeon shooting off the beach on Friday. Mr. Southey of Bridgeport, and a party of friends, took part. The popping of guns could be heard on Main street, but no fear of the Japanese was expressed, even by the most timid, since the latest news from California is very reassuring.

Mr. Carrington Beeman is in town for a few days from Harvard, and Mr. Samuel Glover was home from Yale for the Lincoln holiday. Mr. Louis Morehouse comes back this week for the Washington holiday.

Judge Perry read Bancroft's oration on Lincoln at the library hall on Friday evening, and not in the afternoon as has been published, in a manner which delighted the large audience. Rev. Mr. Beeman's reading of "Tom Taylor's ode to Lincoln, which was first printed in Punch, was listened to with very close attention. Altogether the exercises passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned. It is seldom one sees such a large audience in the library hall.

The circulating libraries for the various schools of the town having been renewed and selected with care, they were distributed last Friday. Mr. Arthur J. Hull had a fortnight's delightful hunting experience in the mountains of North Carolina.

Mrs. Abram Banks is said to be the oldest living woman in Greenfield Hill. And but few of the dead are older.

Mrs. David Smith, who has been sick, is improving.

The first spring boarders from the city have arrived, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt, and have taken board with Miss Emily Jennings, Rose Hill.

Several local Odd Fellows recently went to Bridgeport to attend a banquet.

The Misses Hawkins gave a Valentine party on Thursday evening.

It was the Friday Afternoon club which Mrs. George H. Smith entertained. There was a collation and favors were given to all the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoyt, who have been in New Jersey for a couple of years past intend to return to town.

A week from tomorrow, at the Pequot library, Miss Worstell, of New York, will have a lecture on the Zoological Garden of that city.

Miss Mary Wells of the post office recently spent a day in New York.

This afternoon the Unquova club met in the library to listen to a talk on current events by Mrs. Mitchell Westport.

It is thought the Friday Afternoon club will soon follow the fashion and take luncheon at the Stratfield.

Postmaster Pickett's daughters have had the measles, and Mrs. Pickett has been down with the rheumatism.

Dr. E. P. Disbrow has gone to Baltimore.

It is amusing to read that Dr. Child's new book on Fairfield will contain "a view of the town officers." We hope so. First Selectman Fox would make a very good full page illustration, and would make a fine clerk. Nor should Mr. Acker of the board of assessors be left out, nor Mr. Hawkins of the School Board. In fact, if all the town "officers" are embalmed in Dr. Child's book, it will make a handsome album.

Prof. and Mrs. Hargrove have been visiting in Norwalk.

Why is it that all the new baby boys who arrive in town are "bouncing?" Is it something in the salt air?

Rev. Frank S. Child preached at the Olivet church in Bridgeport, yesterday.

The following new books have just been added to the library: Exploits of Arsene Lupin, by Maurice Leblanc; Wind in the Willows, by Kenneth Grahame; Last Voyage, by D. H. Lawrence; Isabel, Randall Parrish; Great Miss Driver, Anthony Hope Hawkins; Mystery of the Yellow Room, Gascon Leroux; Whole Family, W. D. Howells and others; Egypt, Robert Hichens.

Mr. John H. Sherwood, of Pequot avenue, 34 years of age, was in town on Sunday. His son married a sister of Judge Banks. Mr. Sherwood is the father of Nellis Sherwood, and it will be recollected that he raised the largest pumpkin which has exhibited at the Greenfield fair last fall. He is quite enthusiastic over the brilliant success of the Farmer's Institute at Greens Farms held on Lincoln Day.

Mr. Sherwood voted for Abraham Lincoln both times when he ran for president.

Friday evening there was an enjoyable dance in the hall at the old Pickett building.

Mrs. Mabel Osgood Wright came up from New York on the 11:30 train Saturday, to spend Sunday in town.

Mr. Benjamin Betts was in New Haven on Saturday, looking over the spring fashions in groceries.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

IN STERLING DIVORCE

(Special from United Press.)
Edinburgh, Feb. 15.—The Sterling divorce case came to a close today with the address of Counsellor Morrison on behalf of Lord Northland, who was named by Stirling as co-respondent. Lord Guthrie, presiding, has reserved judgment. Morrison based his appeal on the ground that adverse judgment would wreck Northland's career. Morrison's picture of Northland made him little less than a paragon of virtue which caused Judge Guthrie to interrupt him.

"The letter that Lord Northland wrote to Mrs. Stirling," said Lord Guthrie, "in which he addressed her as 'Darling,' was a most dishonorable act. He must have had a tremendous motive to commit such a breach of propriety."

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE.

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. F. B. Brill, local agent.
